HUGO BOSS is a global leader in the upper premium apparel market.

With some 14,700 employees around the world, the German Group develops and sells high-quality fashions and accessories for women and men under its BOSS and HUGO brands.

Its products range from classic contemporary apparel, elegant evening fashions and casualwear through to shoes, leather accessories and licensed products including fragrances, eyewear, watches, children's fashion, home textiles and writing instruments.

The repositioning of the brands is accompanied by numerous events and campaigns. The Company also sponsors premium sports such as golf, sailing, motorsports and soccer to convey brand values such as success, precision, innovation and sustainability. Sponsorship of cultural events is a further key area of the Group's brand communications, with the Group seeking to create common ground between art and fashion with respect to design, aesthetics and creativity.

The HUGO BOSS writing instrument line was launched in 2015 and has quickly become a force to be reckoned with on the premium writing market. Approaching this segment with a fashion house point of view, the HUGO BOSS line offers perfectly crafted and performant products, while focusing innovative designs. The line offers pens on diverse creative segments; from classical items to pens that are directly inspired by the HUGO BOSS fashion line. A selection of the pieces also find their design roots in architectural structures.

The writing line is completed with a full range of matching writing accessories, such as notebooks, folders and pen pouches, as well as electrical items such as powerbanks. Today, the HUGO BOSS writing instruments are available in over 100 countries across over 2000 point of sales

Every minute, an emotion

With more than 30 years of experience, the Festina Group is a prestigious international company specializing in the production and marketing of timepieces.

Its know-how and the 5 million watches that it distributes annually make it one of the benchmarks in the watch market.

The Group's leading brand, FESTINA, founded in Switzerland in 1902, is currently exported to more than 90 countries, on five continents.

Such expansion and recognition by the general public could only be achieved by building on three founding pillars:

a proven taste for challenge,
a desire for constant innovation,
the tireless search for optimal value for money.

Today, driven by the same passion, a new page is written for the brand, with the launch of Festina Writing and its arrival in the world of writing instruments and leather goods.

Christian Lacroix

Since the creation of the fashion house in 1987 by LVMH, Christian Lacroix, its then Artistic Director, lays the foundation for a colorful and exuberant baroque unique style, rooted in his birthplace of the city of Arles. Its Hispanic inspirations, colors, innovative forms borrowed from theatrical make a sensation and are a breath of freshness in the fashion circles. Quickly, his creations, like the skirt "poof" are carried by the biggest international stars, including Madonna, Julianne Moore or Uma Thurman. Collections are presented around the world and the most influential writers of the fashion support them.

The house took off with the first collections of ready-to-wear in 1988, which included the codes and inspirations of Haute Couture, and with the launch of perfumes and accessories. Store openings followed and fueled the brand to development and international influence. Successive lines of more contemporary ready-to-wear, Bazar and Christian Lacroix Jeans, were driven by an approach of more daily collections with the launch of perfumes in harmony with these collections.

Today, under a new artistic direction since 2010, the Christian Lacroix brand is sold in more than 5500 selective outlets worldwide, with collections of products as varied as men's ready to-wear, which is developing with success and with a strong identity, and diversified collections of products such as leather goods, watches, jewellery, sunglasses, scarves, ties and fragrance. In the world of Home decor with collections of upholstery fabric, wallpapers, cushions, rugs, porcelain tableware, notebooks and scented candles.

The Christian Lacroix brand subsists through timeless values. The result is a fabulously richly entwined universe, which can be continually reinterpreted, re-mixed and illuminated. The Christian Lacroix brand is fundamentally contemporary and dynamic. A complete representation of the complete universe of products of the Christian Lacroix brand can be found in the store "Mix and Match" Saint Sulpice in Paris.

NINA RICCI

In 1932, Nina Ricci established her Parisian couture house. A hallmark of elegance, it would become famous for representing femininity via a sophisticated luxuriousness yet intentionally relaxed style.

By combining sumptuous materials with soft draping, tailoring and her ability to capture the essence, Nina Ricci became synonymous with contemporary fashion. Her main goal was to channel the personality of every woman; proposing a classic wardrobe that favoured naturalness over ostentation.

NINA RICCI

Masculine products have always been part of the Ricci universe, notably with the Ricci Club boutique, on François 1er Street and the 1989 success of the "Ricci Club" perfume.

Born in Turin in 1883, Nina Ricci moved to Monaco with her family. She then settled in Paris, where she spent 20 years refining her art as a couturier and developing her unsurpassed technical expertise. Steeped in Parisian savoir-faire, she pursued her mission to make women look beautiful with a youthful sparkle. When wearing her designs, they appeared subtly fresh and graciously composed; not unlike a flower in bloom.

CERRUTI 1881

In 1881, Antonio Cerruti founded a weaving workshop in Biella, an Italian town renowned for its rich heritage in quality wool and fabric production. From these roots, the Cerruti name has expanded from luxurious fabric to acclaimed fashion without ever losing sight of its core values emphasizing quality and style, craftsmanship and technology. Over the decades, Cerruti 1881 has shown that good modern styling should not just be desirable and inspired, but also innovative and refined.

Today, Cerruti 1881 produces an extensive line of ready-to-wear menswear that remains true to the brand's distinctive ethos of fine fabrics, meticulous craftsmanship and intelligent design. The range of products under the brand includes fragrances, leather goods, watches, jewellery, eyewear, ties, shoes and writing instruments.

While remaining true to the brand's distinctive ethos of fine fabrics, meticulous craftsmanship and intelligent design in its offerings, Cerruti 1881 has embraced innovation and creativity to become the quintessential contemporary menswear brand. The sense of design and the search for increasingly sophisticated fabrics contribute to the natural elegance of the label. The Cerruti 1881 collection is aimed at men who appreciate style and elegance, but also the finer details like fabric quality and finishing.

It all started in 1958 when Jean Bousquet, born in Nîmes, and just qualified as a tailor, came to Paris to launch a small business making women's trousers. In March 1962, he named his society after a bird from the Camargue: Jean Cacharel, and the year after that he obtained his first great success when the photographer Peter Knapp took a picture of the now legendary crepe pink shirt that ended up on the cover of the magazine Elle. The shirt was then called: Le Cacharel.

Emmanuelle Khan and Corinne Sarrut are quickly hired to design the collections. In 1968, Sarah Moon, a young unknown photographer, met Jean Bousquet. It was the beginning of a happy collaboration strengthened with the arrival of publicist, Robert Delpire. The four of them give birth to the Cacharel universe: a romantic one, immortalized through unforgettable, poetic pictures.

In the late 60's, Liberty blouses first appeared, and Cacharel have become a flourishing brand and benchmark of fashion since then, with Liberty dresses taking off in popularity among the 70's generation.

Having launched his first menswear, womenswear and childrenswear collections, and having been awarded the Oscar for exportation in 1969, Jean Bousquet diversified his activities by branching out into perfumery: Anaïs Anaïs, his first perfume, remains today one of the world's best-selling fragrances; Loulou, Noa, Amor Amor and Scarlett will follow.

At the beginning of 2000, Cacharel undertook a serious change to find again the creative energy of its beginnings: the talented designers Clements-Ribeiro allowed Cacharel to participate to the Parisian Fashion Week and once again meet with success.

In November 2009, Cacharel signed a license contract with Italian Group AEFPE (Alberta Ferretti, Philosophy, Moschino, Pollini...), whereupon the French House, the strongest, really opened out internationally.

Nowadays Cacharel is sold in a network of multibrand stores and concept stores in France and worldwide (Barneys, Saks, Harvey Nichols, le Printemps, ...).

Nobody should tell the story of the Fashion House Emanuel Ungaro without starting with its founder Emanuel Ungaro. From the age of 5, Emanuel played with the sewing machine, the whole family's work tool.

This provincial life provided him later with the key to his future trade and introduced him to a lifestyle embracing painting and music that has followed him throughout his life.

Bolstered by his exceptional creative talent, Emanuel moved to Paris at the age of 22 and started his apprenticeship alongside the Spanish designer, Cristobal Balenciaga. This period taught him rigor, perfection and the eternal search for an ideal in the silence required by the demanding yet generous Master.

In 1967, he decided to move his ateliers to Avenue Montaigne. The head offices and flagship store still occupy the same Haussmanian building.

Emanuel Ungaro acquired international fame through his incredible sense of colour and mix of unexpected patterns, by the purity of his shapes and the insolence of the details.

Today the house Emanuel Ungaro has a new owner. It is now present on all international markets: first of all Europe, cradle of the brand, but also the United States and then Japan were conquered by the brand's style.

Then came the accessories, essential instruments to the brand development. This collection privileges shapes and refined details, developed into models intended for active and modern men, whilst attached to the tradition of Ungaro luxury.

Jean-Louis Scherrer
Paris

Jean-Louis Scherrer, this former classical ballet dancer trained in the excellence of couture and this very Parisian form of elegance by his master Christian Dior, remained at the pinnacle of the fickle fashion world for three decades.

1962

Creation of the House Jean-Louis Scherrer by Mr Jean-Louis Scherrer, located at the 182, rue du Faubourg Saint-Honore in Paris.

1971

Jean-Louis Scherrer moves at the 51, avenue Montaigne and launches a Ready-to-Wear line, Jean-Louis Scherrer BOUTIQUE, headed by the Couture House. His prestigious address became a lavish kingdom « where everything evoked fluidity, softness, and virtuosity... and was inspired... ». Jean-Louis Scherrer 's jackets and cocktail's draped dresses in animal prints, floral and spotted prints become classics.

1979

The House launches the first fragrance, "JEAN-LOUIS SCHERRER", followed by two others, "SCHERRER 2" (1986), "NUITS INDIENNES" (1994).

From 1962 to 1992, Jean-Louis Scherrer dressed the most prestigious women of the times: Farah Diba, the Kennedy family, Princess Paola of Belgium, France's then-First Lady Mrs Giscard d'Estaing, actresses Michèle Morgan, Sophia Loren, Raquel Welch and Isabelle Adjani, acclaimed writer Françoise Sagan and so many more.

The House Jean-Louis Scherrer launches a new Ready-to-Wear line for men.

From one collection to the next, it would be a succession of romantic tableaux, with its heroins alternatively becoming queens of legend, silver screen sirens or one of Giraudoux fresh young girls.
